

Past projects:

- Project about strategic options for state forest institutions in Poland.
- Project about incorporating risk in forest sector modelling
- Project about “Sustainable utilization of the woody biomass in the European Union”. Funded by German Federal Environmental Foundation (Deutsche Bundesstiftung Umwelt), realized in cooperation with Center of Wood Science at the University of Hamburg
- Project within the COST FP 1001 scientific program on Improving Data and Information on the Potential Supply of Wood Resources: A European approach from Multisource National Forest Inventories (USEWOOD). Subject of the project: "FAO database improvement and its application to Polish wood supply and demand situation". With cooperation with Wood Technology Institute in Poland.
- Project entitled “Timber market models vs. ‘gap’ models – what is the best tool to look at the future of the forest resources”
- Project about European Union Pellet Demand and its Influence on Forest Market and Carbon Sequestration in the Southeast U.S. 2013. Project was jointly funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education \(FIPSE\) and the EU - European Commission on Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency \(EACEA\) and supported also by multinational forest companies IKEA and Stora Enso.
- Project at United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) entitled: “An economic comparison of alternative water supply sources across eastern Africa”. Location: Southern Research Station in Raleigh/USA